De Talls, contemporary jazz without complex

This, their first album, entitled "De Talls" is in his own words: "a series of subjects and some stardard versioning for us. On this record we intend to find their own sound, modern and staff to reflect our musical influences as well as our life experiences. So our sound is so intimate and powerful. In short, we have tried to join a music jazz, pop, Brazilian music ... and emotions".

From the 11 pieces in the record is difficult to highlight just one. Own light shine "Mis Manias" in which he participated Xavier Molina on tenor sax or "En media hora", both composed by Fernando Morer, covers of the classic Louis Armstrong or above Elvis Presley, "Valía la pena" in which Esteve Dalmau has put his guitar or the piece dedicated to the road often traveled between Blanes to Castelló d'Empuries "De Blanes a Castelló".

"De Talls" is an album produced by patient and attention to detail, finished recording in late 2009 at the Estudi 5 Grama, and leaving to stand up now that finally sees the light.
